There was a mingled mass of dead and wounded, and a most appalling sight, such as has not been witnessed in Richmond since the burning of the theatre, in the olden time.

Mr. T. A. Brewis, of Alexandria, was kill ed instantly. This event will arouse the sympathy, and cause the distress of every citizen of Alexandria.

Col. George Wm. Brent had his leg broken, and was otherwise injured.

Mr. Claughton, from Alexandria, was not in the city.

It was a most heart rending sight, and can never be crased from the memories of those who saw it.

LATER.

About twenty seven were killed and more than one hundred wounded.

The stores are all closed and a pall of gloom is cast over the entire city.

Associated Press Dispatches. RICHMOND, VA., April 27-A large crowd collected in the upper portion of the capitol building this morning where the Supreme court of appeals is located to hear the decision in the mayoralty case. About eleven a. m. the floor gave away beneath the dense weight, precipitating the crowd to the floor below, which was that of the House of Delegates. It is hard to ascertain at present the extent of the injuries, so great is the excitement, but some are killed and a large number severely injured. Many escaped the terrible fall by jumping into the windows when the floor gave way. The wounded are now being attended to.

[SECOND DISPATCH.] RICHMOND, April 27.-A terrible calamity occurred here this morning. The floor of the Court of Appeals in the State Capitol gave way, and precipitated the hundreds therein assembled to hear the decision in the mayoralty case of Ellyson and Chahoon, upon the conservative caucus then sitting in the Hall of the House of Delegates below. It is impossible to ascertain the extent of the injuries at this hour.

Among the killed are P. H. Aylett, a distinguished lawyer; Dr. J. B. Brock, reporter for the Enquirer and Examiner; Samuel Eston, clerk to Mayor Chahoon; Captain Wm. A. Charters, chief of the fire department; Ash Levy, a Richmond merchant; Charles Watson, of the Danville railroad; Hugh Hutchinson and Lewis N. Webb, of this city; Mr Schofield, a brother of General Schofield; R. H. Maury, Jr. Senator Bland, (colored;) Powhatan Rot-erts, and N. P. Howard, a lawyer. It is supposed that twenty members of the State Legislature are killed and wounded. The judges of the Court of Appeals all escaped un hurt. Ex Governor Wells was badly injured, L. H. Chandler, counsel for Mayor Chahoon on the mayoralty case, was injured, James Neeson and Judge Meredith, counsel for Ellyson, were also badly hurt. About two hundred were hurt by the accident. The greatest excitement prevails. Hundreds of persons are on the Capitol square weeping and wailing as the dead and dying are brought out of the building. Governor Walker escaped unburt, though on the court room floor at the time.

A private dispatch from Gov. Walker to gentleman in this city says that the only Alexandrian killed was Mr. Brewis.

nfection in the Air. Esperi estal chemists have repeatedly ana ly z ad the a r at unhealthy seasons, in he hope of detecting the invisible virus which produces epidemic disease. They have not yet discover ed it and scarcely any two of them agree as to its nature. This is of little consequence. It is sufficient to know that this poisonous principle influence has been provided. In the spring and early summer, when fever and ague, remittent feve and othe periotical diseases of that class are prevalent, it is only necessary to fortify the system with a course of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters to escape them. If this precaution has been neglected, which it never ought to be in ary district liable to such visitations, and if the paroxysms of mal rious fever have actually commenced, they may always be checked and broken up by a course of that powerful vegeta-ble tonic and alterative. Quinine was once considered the only specific for chills and fevers; but it is now generally admitted that this nauseous alkaloid is a dang rous medicine, and that its secondary effects are more to be dreaded than any form of intermittent fever. It i simply a tremendous astringent. It does not touch the disordered liver, or regulate the bowels or in any way improve the condition of the animal fluids. Hostetter's Bitters, on the other hand, in addition to being a better and safer tonic than any preparation of quinine, has bilsamic effect upon the whole system. It is aperient and antipilious, as well as directly invigorating, and purifies the secretions as well as regulates the secretive organs. It stimulates the appetite, strengthens the stomach, soothes nerves promotes healthful perspiration and induces quiet sleep. As a stomachic it has no rival. Cases of indigestion that no other tonic seems capable of alleviating, are cured in a few weeks by its regular use. ap 25-eolw The Delicate and Infirm.

The most incredulous are convinced of the virtues of Speer's "Standard Wine Bitters" upon a trial of them. Their base is pure wine with herbs and roots so favorably known to the Medical Profession and the community at They are all that can be desired by the most feeble and infirm.
